THE CHINA REVIEW.

THE widely-expressed regret at the discontinuation of Notes & Queries on China and Japan, has induced the publishers of this journal to issue a publication of similar object and style, but slightly modified in certain details.

THE CHINA REVIEW, or Notes and Queries on the Far East, is issued at intervals of two months, each number containing about 60 octavo pages, occasionally illustrated with lithographs, photographs, and maps, &c., should the papers published warrant the circulation justify such extra matter.

The subscription is fixed at $6.50 postage paid, per annum; payable by non-residents in Hongkong half-yearly in advance.

The publication includes papers original and selected under the Arts and Sciences, Literature, Folklore, Geography, History, Literature, Mythology, Manners and Customs, Natural History, Religion, &c., &c., of China, Japan, Mongolia, Tibet, the Eastern Archipelago and other subjects generally. A more detailed list of subjects and their contributions are especially valuable. Contributions in Chinese, Latin, French, German, Spanish, Italian or Portuguese, are admissible. Endeavour will be made to secure the most recent works bearing on Chinese matters. Great attention is also paid to the Review department.

Notes and Replies are classified here under "Notes" (head references being given, when furnished, to previous Notes or Queries), as are also those queries which have not been answered, and which are published in the Review, and which are in the hands of the Editor. It is desirable to make the Queries proper as brief and as much to the point as possible.

The China Review for July and August, 1875, is at hand. It says that forty-two essays were sent in to compete for the best paper on the advantages of Christianity for the development of a State. (All our learned contributors should subscribe to this society and enterprising Review. It is a sixty pages, bi-monthly repository of what sophisticated and accurate about China. The editorial on Chinese Poetry in this volume is about worth the price of the Review. Address: China Review, Hongkong—Northern Christianity, Adelaide (U.S.).
